The Kennedy Book: The impression here after reading the Look magazine installments of William Manchester's "The Death of a President" is that either the book was an unfortunate project or it was unfortunately edited for use by the magazine. As presented by Look, it is little more than an exercise in keyhole-peeping into the emotions of a grief-sickened family and a grief-sickened nation. The family and the nation deserve better.

Ad Infinitum: The Robert Goodman Agency, which handled Governor Agnew's election campaign, is in line for the State advertising work channeled through the Department of Economic
